Item: 35

Schedule change

The Men's competition has been rescheduled

Summary:

Due to the weather forecast (high probability of thunderstorms), access to the venue may be affected. The competition has consequently been rescheduled to 9:00 tomorrow.

Details:

Thunderstorms with wind speeds of over 120 km/h are forecast for this afternoon, with associated heavy rain and lightning. Due to the increased risk to spectators travelling to the venue and the potential impact on transportation, the Beach Volleyball Men's competition has been rescheduled to 9:00 tomorrow.

Issued by: FIVB Technical Delegate

COMPETITION FORMAT AND RULES

BEACH VOLLEYBALL

As of 23 JUN 2016

Olympic Competition Format

The Olympic competition for Men and Women consists of two phases - the preliminary phase and the final phase. A total of 24 men and 24 women grouped in two-player teams will take part in the competition. In total, 108 matches will be played (54 men's and 54 women's).

Preliminary phase

The preliminary phase will consist of six pools of four teams each in a round robin format, followed by the lucky loser round.

Seeding of the teams and pool allocation will be determined by a draw to be conducted by the FIVB in cooperation with Rio 2016 no later than one week before the start of the competition.

A total of 16 teams will qualify to the final phase for each of the men's and women's events.

- The first two ranked teams from each pool advance automatically to the final phase - 12 teams qualify
- The best two teams that ranked third will also advance automatically to the final phase - 2 teams qualify
- The four remaining third ranked teams will play a two match lucky loser round (3rd vs 6th and 4th vs 5th) - 2 teams qualify

Final phase

The 16 men's and 16 women's teams advancing to the final phase will play a single elimination system - a head-to-head match from which the winner advances to the next round, the loser is eliminated from the competition.

Seeding of the teams will be in accordance with the FIVB regulations.

The pool winners (six teams) will be placed in predefined positions in the final phase bracket (A1, E1, D1, C1, F1, B1). The remaining ten teams will be placed in the bracket according to the draw. These ten teams comprise the six teams that placed 2nd in each pool, the best two 3rd ranked teams, and the two winners of the lucky loser round.

Differences between FIVB World Championships World Championships and the Olympic Games

The World Championships currently has 48 teams per gender. Divided into 12 pools of four teams each, the top two in each pool and the eight best third-placed teams qualify for a round of 32. There is no Lucky Loser play-off.

Four teams per NOC (and six teams for the host NOC) are allowed in the World Championships. Only two teams per gender per NOC are allowed at the Olympic Games.

An automatic seeding system is used at the World Championships.

Results at the Olympic Games do not count towards world rankings.

Sport Rules and Procedures

Scoring

Each match is the best of three sets. The first two sets are played to 21 points and the third set, if needed, is played to 15 points. All sets require a two-point advantage (which is unlimited) to win.

Beach Volleyball uses the rally point system (sometimes referred to as RPS) where the team winning a rally scores a point regardless of which team is serving. When a team wins a rally, it gains a point and the right to serve.

At the completion of each match during the pool stage, two points will be awarded to the winner, one point will be awarded to the loser. Zero points are awarded to a forfeited team.

Ranking in Pools

Ranking in the pools will be determined by the total number of points. If a tie should occur during the team ranking process, the following processes will be followed.

During the preliminary phase:

Between two teams:

- If teams have played against each other, the winner of the head to head match is ranked higher
- If teams concerned have not played against each other, their ranking is determined by the points ratio between all teams in the pool
- If still tied then the teams will share the same rank

Between three teams:

- If three teams are tied by points, their ranking is determined by the points ratio in the matches between the three tied teams
- If still tied then the tied teams are ranked by the points ratio between all teams in the pool
- If still tied then the teams will share the same rank

Between four teams:

- The ranking is determined by the points ratio between all teams in the pool
- If still tied then the teams will share the same rank

At the end of the preliminary phase:

Between two teams:

- The winner of the head to head match is ranked higher

Between three teams:

- The ranking is determined by the points ratio in the matches between the three tied teams
- If still tied then their ranking is determined by the points ratio between all teams in the pool
- If still tied then their ranking is determined by a draw

Definition of 3rd Ranked Pool Teams

All 3rd ranked teams from the pools will be ranked according to their match points, set and points ratio. If two or more teams are tied their ranking will be determined by a draw.

The two best 3rd ranked teams from the pools will qualify directly to the final round.

The remaining four 3rd ranked teams from the pools will play in the two lucky loser matches. The matches will be set according to their pool ranking (3rd vs 6th and 4th vs 5th).

Protests - Appeals

Disputes will be resolved under the FIVB regulations. The FIVB Control Committee will make decisions in accordance with the FIVB regulations.

All protests and appeals must be lodged with the FIVB Control Committee in writing no later than sixty minutes after the end of the match and should be accompanied by a deposit of 500 dollars.

Protests based on the rules of the game will be studied and resolved by the referee delegate and passed on to the FIVB Control Committee not later than six hours after the protest is submitted. A final verdict will be given by the jury not later than twelve hours after the protest is submitted or at the latest, before the start of the following match of the team concerned.

FIVB Control Committee members of the same nationality as the team making a protest will be excluded from the deliberations when the protest is being studied.

FIVB Control Committee

The judges and jury for Beach Volleyball are chosen in accordance with the FIVB regulations.

The FIVB Board of Administration will appoint ten FIVB control committee members, two Technical Delegates and one referee delegate who will also perform the duties of jury of appeal for Beach Volleyball.

The FIVB will be responsible for the technical control and direction of the Olympic Beach Volleyball competition.

Appointment of Referees

There will be a total of 16 referees for Beach Volleyball. The FIVB will be responsible for appointing all referees and a sufficient number of competition officials, ten international referees from the FIVB pool and up to four referees from the host international pool. The FIVB will be responsible for appointing referees for each match.

Beach Volleyball Rules

The Beach Volleyball competition at the Rio 2016 Olympic Games will be held in accordance with the Official Beach Volleyball Rules, Edition 2013-2016 and the Olympic Charter in force at that time.

The FIVB assumes the responsibility for technical control and direction of its sport at the Olympic Games.

The Official Beach Volleyball Rules are available from the FIVB and may be found on their website <http://www.fivb.org>.

Penalties / Disqualification Rules

HISTORY BEACH VOLLEYBALL

Origin of Beach Volleyball

Beach Volleyball originated on the beaches of Santa Monica, California, USA during the 1920s.

Within ten years the game had spread to Europe and by the 1950s the first organised tournaments were taking place in USA and Brazil. The first organised championships were held in California in 1976.

The Federation Internationale de Volleyball (FIVB) recognised Beach Volleyball as an official discipline of Volleyball in 1986 and a year later, the first international FIVB-sanctioned Beach Volleyball tournament was held on Ipanema Beach in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Beach Volleyball Today

Beach Volleyball is one of the most entertaining sports in the world, with cheerleaders, DJs and explosive action all part of the prestigious FIVB World Tour. The FIVB World Tour consists of around 30 events in Europe, Africa, Asia and the Americas with more than 7.5 million USD (US Dollars) in prize money available.

There are 220 National Volleyball Federations which have Beach Volleyball activities and the FIVB estimates there are more than 2,000 professional players worldwide.

Beach Volleyball at the Olympic Games

Beach Volleyball made its official debut at the Atlanta 1996 Olympic Games.

The sport has been dominated by USA, who have won five of the eight gold medals. Brazil (twice) and Australia are the other nations to have won an Olympic gold medal in Beach Volleyball, while China, Canada, Spain, Germany and Switzerland have all featured on the podium.

One of the most successful pairings in Olympic history is USA's Misty MAY-TREANOR and Kerri WALSH. The American duo won the gold medal at both the Athens 2004 Games and the Beijing 2008 Games without losing a single set - a flawless run of 14 matches.

Beach Volleyball in Brazil

Brazil is not only dominating the sport professionally, as their many Olympic medals show, but Beach Volleyball is one of the most popular sports among amateur players, especially in Rio where a beach is never too far away.

Most schools mix different levels of Beach Volleyball players as well as men and women, so everyone can join them and improve their game.

The Brazuka Gringo group is a social event. Current players are from all around the world, so one can exchange experiences about life in Brazil or ask the Brazilians about their country.

Comments from Germany's Beach Volleyball players Julius BRINK/Jonas RECKERMANN following their 2-1 (23-21, 16-21, 16-14) win over Brazil's Emanuel REGO/Alison CERUTTI in the men's gold medal match at Copacabana Stadium on Thursday.

Julius BRINK (GER) - Gold

On coming back from losing the second set:

"It is great that we have been through that experience before. When I was doubting that we could win, Jonas was there, saying come on. Even when it was going badly, whether we win or lose one ball, just 'come on'. And we dragged ourselves back into the match."

Jonas RECKERMANN (GER) - Gold

On how it feels to have won gold at the Rio 2016 Olympic Games:

"We need time to take this in. It is unbelievable. There were so many ups and down during the match and I can't believe that we won."

On the difference between this and the last four times they faced, and lost to, the Brazilian team:

"This time we fought until the very end. We didn't let the match get out of our hands. We were more controlled than before, just thinking about the next point. We have been working with a sports psychologist to help keep our heads clear, because there are always doubts."

Julius BRINK (GER) - Gold

On what they did between winning the match and the medal ceremony:

"We had to change clothes and hug as many people as we could in the 15 minutes we had before the ceremony. Because of broadcast media there are a lot of demands on us. It was tough to find our families, our wives or girlfriends."

On if this win will change them:

"We will not change our personalities, but this has been a big push to the sport. We are really happy for ourselves and for our team, and everyone surrounding us. The German federation really supported us."

Jonas RECKERMANN (GER) - Gold

On the match:

"It was a big, big match for us and the sport. The drama was unbelievable. I have too many impressions, too many emotions right now."

On their opponents:

"They have been the best team in the last few years, but we always knew we had a chance. EMANUEL is the best player ever, the most successful. He is a living legend. It was great to meet them in the Olympic final. ALISON and (Philip) DALHAUSER (USA) are the best blockers in Beach Volleyball."

Emanuel REGO (BRA) - Silver

On the atmosphere of the Olympic final:

"What a final. I think it was more than an experience. The fans were so intense. I think there must be 15,000 satisfied fans, there were so many flags waving. Beach Volleyball means that to me, it was a party."

On the match:

"It was a tough battle. ALISON and I did what we needed to do, but it wasn't enough. If we had won the first set, maybe it would have been different."

Alison CERUTTI (BRA) - Silver

On the match result:

"The German team is a great team and deserve our respect. In the first set we made some mistakes, in the second we were better. In the tie break we came back from three match points and that shows that our team never gives up. Losing is never good, but that is life. We have no excuses, we are sad, but happy that we never gave up throughout the tournament."

SPORT PREVIEW

BEACH VOLLEYBALL

News Item: 1

The men's Beach Volleyball tournament gets underway at Copacabana Stadium on Saturday with the USA pairing of Todd ROGERS/Phil DALHAUSSER striving to repeat of their gold medal performance at the Beijing 2008 Olympic Games.

- The duo have been a long-standing force in the sport, claiming 17 first place finishes on the FIVB World Tour since that memorable day in Beijing. Their most recent tour wins came in 2012 at Shanghai and Brasilia.
- Despite DALHAUSSER withdrawing from last week's A1 Grand Slam in Klagenfurt, Austria with an ankle strain, the USA team are expected to be a strong force. They line up in the Pool B competition, which also includes Czech Republic, Japan and Spain.
- One team looking to halt the USA's charge towards back-to-back gold medals is Emanuel REGO/Alison CERUTTI (BRA). REGO won gold at the Athens 2004 Olympic Games and is a two-time FIVB Beach Volleyball world champion.
- The duo started playing together in 2008, but it wasn't until 2011 that their work started to reap rewards. REGO/CERUTTI won the 2011 FIVB world championships in Rome and further golds followed in Gstaad and Moscow, ensuring their finish as world tour champions. They are expected to top a group that includes Italy, Switzerland and Austria.
- Elsewhere, in Pool E, Netherlands pairing of Reinder NUMMERDOR/Richard SCHUIL have hit form at the right time. They won the A1 Grand Slam at Klagenfurt. They arrive with Olympic experience too, having made the quarterfinals at Beijing 2008.
- Great Britain hopes rest with John GARCIA-THOMPSON/Steve GROTOWSKI, though the British team face tricky opponents in Pool F in the form of Ricardo SANTOS/Pedro CUNHA (BRA). SANTOS is one of the most decorated Beach Volleyball players. He won silver at Sydney 2000, gold at Athens 2004 and bronze at Beijing 2008.
- In Pool D, the men's USA pairing of Jacob GIBB/Sean ROSENTHAL could make a big impression on the tournament. They claimed their spot at Copacabana Stadium, and USA's second and final placing by reaching the semifinals of the Smart Grand Slam in Rome. That performance beat the result of their rivals and fellow Olympic qualification hopefuls, Matthew FUERBRINGER/Nicholas LUCENA (USA).
- Jonas RECKERMANN/Julius BRINK (GER) are the other strong contenders in this tournament, having won a bronze medal at the 2011 world championships. In 2011 they won seven medals in 10 events. In their first FIVB world tour event of 2012 in Moscow they finished fourth.

The German duo of Julius BRINK/Jonas RECKERMANN take on the top seeded team of ALISON/EMANUEL (BRA) at the Rio 2016 Olympic Games in a potentially thrilling climax to the men's tournament at Copacabana Stadium on Thursday.

Gold medal match - Julius BRINK/Jonas RECKERMANN (GER) vs EMANUEL/ALISON (BRA) -

- When BRINK/RECKERMANN secured their place in the final of the Men's Beach Volleyball tournament at Copacabana Stadium. Their place in the final is deserved. They have looked strong throughout the competition and have struck a rich seam of form to get this far.
- Their opponents, EMANUEL/ALISON carry a tough blend of strength and match-winning experience. The German team will have to prolong their hot streak if they're to have any hope of making it to the podium top on Thursday night.

Bronze medal match - Martins PLAVINS/Janis SMEDINS (LAT) vs Reinder NUMMERDOR/Rich SCHUIL (NED)

- In making it this far, SMEDINS/PLAVINS have already made Olympic Beach Volleyball history. No Latvian pairing has ever got this far in the sport and they went out only to the powerful Brazilian duo of ALISON/EMANUEL in the semifinals.
- Whether that defeat will halt their momentum remains to be seen. Netherlands were dealt a psychological piledriver when BRINK/RECKERMANN dismantled them in convincing manner on Tuesday night. They will need to find a tough inner resolve if they're to claim a bronze medal.

Julius BRINK/Jonas RECKERMANN (GER) beat Emanuel REGO/Alison CERUTTI (BRA) 2-1 (23-21, 16-21, 16-14) in their men's gold medal match at Copacabana Stadium on Thursday.

- BRINK/RECKERMANN reached the final on the back of a hot streak of form. EMANUEL, an Olympic champion, hasn't hit his typically high standards at Rio 2016, but the Brazilian duo have been powered by the strength and speed of his teammate, ALISON.
- The opening battles of the first set proved typically tight. Neither side could move into a significant lead and, after ALISON started the game with a kill block, Brazil and Germany traded leads with an exciting display of kills and acrobatic defensive play on the sand.
- After a series of crowd-pleasing rallies, the teams came together at 19-19 before a hefty ALISON spike blasted the German sand to give Brazil set point. The Germans drew level, Brazil advanced, then Germany took the advantage before a RECKERMANN kill fizzed off the line to give his team the first set in dramatic fashion.
- ALISON was ignited by the setback. He smashed kills into the German court and set EMANUEL up for effective spikes. Germany fell to his kill block at the net and Brazil moved into a 12-7 lead. No matter what BRINK/RECKERMANN tried, they were unable to get past ALISON at the front of the court and EMANUEL in defence. ALISON in particular was a powerful force and scored point after point to take the second set and draw the match level.
- The decider followed the same pattern as the first set. Neither team could push into a commanding lead and the scores were tied at 5-5 until an overhit spike from ALISON and a fiery kill from RECKERMANN pushed Germany into a 7-5 lead. Germany advanced further and RECKERMANN drew on the match-winning resolve that has served him so well in this competition to push his team into an 11-8 lead.
- What followed was pure Beach Volleyball theatre: EMANUEL, with all his Olympic experience, fired the ball into his side of the net. RECKERMANN began to dominate at the front of court and suddenly Germany were 14-11 ahead.
- With the gold medal almost out of reach, Brazil saved three match points, drawing level with an ALISON ace. RECKERMANN hit back with a kill, and the Copacabana Stadium crowd cheered louder than ever.
- When Brazil fired the ball out, BRINK/RECKERMANN became the second team to write themselves into the Olympic record books on Thursday.

Germans and Latvians took gold and bronze medals in the most exciting day of Beach Volleyball competition at the Rio 2016 Olympic Games.

Bronze medal match - Martins PLAVINS/Janis SMEDINS (LAT) vs Reinder NUMMERDOR/Rich SCHUIL (NED)

- Martins PLAVINS/Janis SMEDINS (LAT) beat Reinder NUMMERDOR/Rich SCHUIL (NED) 2-1 (19-21, 21-19, 15-11) to take the bronze medal. The Latvian duo made history just by getting this far in the tournament - by winning this match their position as the best Beach Volleyball team in their country's history was furthered.
- PLAVINS in particular was in inspired form, but NUMMERDOR/SCHUIL responded strongly. SCHUIL's height and intelligence at the net helped them back into the set. NUMMERDOR's athleticism at the back of the court saved vital points and they won a set that looked beyond them at times.
- During the second, Latvia began to sense another upset on their impressive adventure at Rio 2016. Despite some strong work at the net from SCHUIL, it was the Latvians who reached set point with a spike from SMEDINS. He drew the game level at 1-1 in sets with a kill block to push the match to a decider.
- By the time NUMMERDOR blew a save at the sand to give his opponents match point in the third, PLAVINS/SMEDINS had a cushion of four points. NUMMERDOR then palmed his serve into the net to give PLAVINS/SMEDINS the match, a bronze medal and a little slice of Beach Volleyball history

Gold medal match - Julius BRINK/Jonas RECKERMANN (GER) vs EMANUEL/ALISON (BRA)

- The Rio 2016 Olympics Games waited until the final match of the tournament before delivering the best tie of the competition. BRINK/RECKERMANN beat EMANUEL/ALISON 2-1 (23-21, 16-21, 16-14) during a three set thriller that delivered drama and technical excellence in equal measure.
- Germany shocked the No.1-ranked team in the tournament by taking a one set lead with a strong, offensive display - RECKERMANN in particular delivered devastating kills. Brazil rallied and pulled the match level in the second, as ALISON used his strength, speed and guile to dominate the court and score kill after kill.
- The final set was pure Beach Volleyball theatre. The two teams wrestled for superiority before Germany hit gold medal point at 14- 11, but then the unexpected happened: Brazil won three on the bounce to draw the two teams level.
- RECKERMANN killed for yet another match point. And when Brazil fired the ball out, BRINK/RECKERMANN became the second team to have written themselves in the Olympic record book on Thursday. Alongside Latvia's groundbreaking win, Germany became the first European team in Olympic Beach Volleyball to win a gold medal. They also delivered a fitting and dramatic end to an enthralling tournament.

Germans and Latvians took gold and bronze medals in the most exciting day of Beach Volleyball competition at the Rio 2016 Olympic Games.

- The Rio 2016 Olympic Games played host to a Beach Volleyball competition that delivered thrills, spills and a handful of upsets at Copacabana Stadium.
- The opening game of the competition set the tone when Anastasia VASINA/Anna VOZAKOVA defeated the highly-rated China team of ZHANG Xi/XUE Chen in a thrilling Pool B match in the women's event.
- What followed was a competition full of close matches and exciting clashes as the big guns of Misty MAY-TREANOR/Kerri WALSH (USA), April ROSS/Jennifer KESSY (USA), ZHANG/XUE (CHN), LARISSA/JULIANA (BRA) and Sara GOLLER/Laura LUDWIG (GER) made it through to the knockout stages in the women's competition.
- The Men's tournament stuck to a similar theme and the top-seeded pairings made it through their groups with barely a hitch. EMANUEL/ALISON (BRA), Todd ROGERS/Phil DALHAUSSER (USA), Julius BRINK/Jonas RECKERMANN (GER) and Reinder NUMMERDOR/Rich SCHUIL (NED) advanced with ease.
- The pool stages made heroes of some players: Aleksandrs SAMOILOVS of Latvia - nicknamed 'The Lion King' because of his wild hair - wowed the crowd and Daniele LUPO (ITA) gathered a reputation as being the most exciting blocker in the competition. Meanwhile, Doris SCHWAIGER/Stefanie SCHWAIGER (AUT) became the first and only team to win a set against MAY-TREANOR/WALSH in 12 years of Olympic competition.
- Elsewhere, the Australian duo of Nat COOK/Tamsin HINCHLEY and the Great Britain team of Shauna MULLIN/Zara DAMPNEY had the crowd support, but they were unable to match the raucous reception with wins.
- Once the competition had moved into the round of 16 matches and quarterfinals, the action really started to hot up. Both USA teams asserted their strength in the women's competition and were matched only by the brilliance of Laura LUDWIG (GER) and the much-fancied Brazilian duo of LARISSA/JULIANA.
- In the Men's competition, the big names began to topple and ROGERS/DALHAUSSER (USA) were knocked out by the impressive Lativan duo of Martins PLAVINS/Janis SMEDINS who became the most successful Latvian Beach Volleyball team in Olympic history by making it to the semifinals. Elsewhere, the German duo of Julius BRINK/Jonas RECKERMANN discovered a rich seam of form and powered their way into the final four alongside NUMMERDOR/SCHUIL and EMANUEL/ALISON.
- The semifinals in both competitions were packed full of excitement. In the Women's event, KESSY/ROSS defeated LARISSA/JULIANA to set up an all-USA final once MAY-TREANOR/WALSH nudged aside ZHANG/XUE, who had recovered their nerve after their opening day wobble. Brazil took the bronze medal match and MAY-TREANOR/WALSH powered past their compatriots in the final to win their third gold medal in three Olympics.
- The men delivered equal levels of adrenaline. BRINK/RECKERMANN defeated the attacking flair of NUMMERDOR/SCHUIL to join Brazil's EMANUEL/ALISON in the final. Latvia's PLAVINS/SMEDINS, their victims at the semifinal stage, went onto win the bronze medal, adding to their already historic achievements in this competition.
- The best was saved until last. NUMMERDOR/SCHUIL and EMANUEL/ALISON embarked on a three-set thriller that delivered technical brilliance and thrills in equal measure. BRINK/RECKERMANN - who have been in sparkling form all Games - won through 16-14 in a dramatic 16-14 final set. Their victory made them the first European team to win an Olympic gold in Beach Volleyball. A fitting climax to a wonderful competition.

Beach Volleyball: IOC disqualifies FAMILYNAME Givenname (NOC) for doping violation

The International Olympic Committee (IOC) on Monday announced that it has disqualified FAMILYNAME Givenname (NOC) from the Beach Volleyball Men's tournament of the Rio 2016 Olympic Games.

Immediately after his participation in the match on 10 August, FAMILYNAME, 23, provided a urine sample that tested positive for the prohibited substance 11-nor-delta-9-tetrahydrocannabinol-9-carboxylic acid.

The IOC Disciplinary Commission, composed for this case of Mr Givenname FAMILYNAME (Chairman), Mr Givenname FAMILYNAME and Mr Givenname FAMILYNAME, decided:

- I. The athlete, Mr Givenname FAMILYNAME, NOC name, Beach Volleyball:
 - (i) is disqualified from the Men's tournament of the Rio 2016 Olympic Games where he placed 7th;
 - (ii) shall have his diploma in the above-mentioned event withdrawn; and
 - (iii) shall have his Olympic identity and accreditation card cancelled and withdrawn immediately.
- II. The FIVB is requested to modify the results of the above-mentioned event accordingly and to consider any further action within its own competence.
- III. The NOC of the member country is ordered to return to the IOC, as soon as possible, the diploma awarded to the athlete in relation to the above-mentioned event.
- IV. This decision shall enter into force immediately.

Under the IOC Anti-Doping Rules applicable to the Rio 2016 Olympic Games, testing takes place under the IOC's auspices from the opening of the Olympic Village to the Closing Ceremony. Within that period, the IOC systematically performs tests before and after events. After each event, the IOC systematically carries out tests on the top five finishers plus two at random. The IOC also performs out-of-competition unannounced tests. Over the course of the Rio 2016 Olympic Games, the IOC is expected to carry out some 5,000 tests - 3,800 urine and 1,200 blood. For more information, please consult the IOC factsheet on anti-doping.
