HISTORY EQUESTRIAN

Origin of Equestrian

Equestrian sport as we know it today, particularly the Olympic disciplines of show jumping, dressage and eventing, evolved during the latter half of the 19th Century. On 15th April 1868, the Royal Dublin Society included for the first time in the programme of its annual horse show, two jumping competitions: the "high leap" and the "wide leap", both derived from the Irish passion for fox hunting. The growth of modern equestrian sport was very rapid, but initially, only relatively few competitors were involved in international competitions. They all knew each other and they probably knew all the judges and they were quite prepared to accept any local variations to the fairly simple rules which existed at the time.

Equestrian Today

In 1900, to commemorate the Olympic Games, the Societe Hippique Francais extended its annual National Horse Show in Paris in April by three days and invited foreign athletes. Two years later a big international horse show was held in Turin, Italy. After the 1920 Olympic Games, as the rules in many sports were unsatisfactory, the IOC's President, Baron de Coubertin, invited representatives of several sports to Lausanne to discuss the rules and the formation of representative international federations. Consequently, in May 1921, delegates from ten equestrian countries met in Lausanne and four of them - the USA, France, Japan and Sweden - decided on the constitution of an International Equestrian Federation.

Equestrian at the Olympic Games

The idea of including equestrian sport was already raised when the first Olympic Games were being planned for 1896 in Athens but, due to organisational problems and the lack of Greek interest in equestrian sport, nothing became of it. The first serious attempt to include riding as an Olympic discipline was made by a group of Swedish officers led by Count Clarence von Rosen. The Count appealed to Baron de Coubertin at the International Olympic Committee meeting in 1906 and, as a result, he was asked by the Baron to draft an Olympic equestrian programme. This was presented to the Olympic Congress at The Hague in 1907 and accepted for the 1908 Games to be held in London. However, when the Organising Committee received the entries from eighty-eight athletes from eight nations, they backed down. Fortunately, the next Games of 1912 were awarded to Stockholm and there was no difficulty about accepting the programme proposed by Count von Rosen in 1907. Eventing was limited to entries made by military officers but the jumping and dressage competitions were opened to civilians. Sixty-two competitors from ten nations with seventy horses took part in the competitions, but they were all officers.

LAMZE Eric (CAN) - Gold medal winner

On his horse HICKSTEAD:

"He is the easiest horse to ride. He is always a winner. He does everything from instinct and pure talent."
"He will start breeding after the Masters. We will have him available for breeding next season."

On Equestrian sport in Canada:

"I think Canada always had great athletes. For many years we lacked the horses. We have never been able to fill a team for the longest time. In the last few years we were able to do that, and that changed everything."

On getting a clear round in the jump-off:

"My horse is really careful. You can count on him to give you 100 per cent effort. I have all the confidence in the world (in him.) He makes my job very easy."

On recovering from his career pitfalls (being banned from two Olympics for testing positive for cocaine):

"You cannot come back to the sport without the support of your sponsors, friends and family. They make it nearly impossible to try (giving up)." "If this Gold medal does not make people forgive and stop talking about my past all the time, I do not know what will."

On being Olympic champion:

"For days this is only a dream. But now this is reality."

BENGTSSON Rolf-Goran (SWE) - Silver medal winner

On dropping the last brick wall:

"My horse became too strong and too forward in jumping the last brick wall. I am super-satisfied with my horse, and it is a great winner today."

On his horse NINJA:

"He is a very brave horse, not so big. He doesn't think about jumping big fences. When I steer him at anything, he will jump. He is a sweet horse, and it is a real pleasure riding a horse like that."

On the top three horses being Dutch-bred:

"My horse NINJA and Beezie MADDEN's (USA) horse (AUTHENTIC) have the same sire."

On his performance:

"I had a very strong feeling the whole week. I got a bit worried when the spectators shouted out at the corner of the water jump. I noticed that there was a little sea (pool of water, from a leak) behind the jump. My mind went back to the incident in Athens (2004 Olympic Games), when the gate (of a fence) fell down. I thought that would happen here again. I didn't panic and stayed cool when I saw that it was taking too long to repair it (the leaking water). I took the horse out of the arena to remain calm thinking that Eric (LAMAZE, CAN) was riding behind me with a super-fast horse (HICKSTEAD)."

SPORT PREVIEW EQUESTRIAN

News Item: 1

- Growing interest in Equestrian sport is evident at the Beijing 2008 Olympic Games as athletes from a record 42 National Olympic Committees compete, three more than at the Athens 2004 Olympic Games.
- China is represented at the Equestrian Games for the first time and is fielding ride. rs for all three disciplines.
- Rule changes affect all three disciplines for different reasons.

Eventing

- 73 competitors are to represent 24 NOCs. 11 NOCs have enough athletes to form teams.
- Australia holds 10 Olympic medals for Equestrian, all in Eventing. The 2008 team features Clayton and Lucinda FREDERICKS, husband and wife, who won the Four-star competitions in Lexington and Badminton.
- Defending silver medallist Great Britain won the 2007 European Championships by more than 60 points. Veteran team members are Mary KING, participating in her fifth Olympics, and William FOX-PITT, ranked number 3 in the world.
- Experienced athletes include two times Olympic Australian Eventing Team gold medallist Philip DUTTON, who has since changed nationality, and 2004 bronze medallist Amy TYRON.

Dressage

- 49 competitors representing 22 NOCs, up from 18 in 2004, are scheduled to compete in the Dressage events.
- Teams are reduced to three members, following the IOC rule that no more than three members per NOC may compete for medal finals. Previously, teams could enter four horse/athlete combinations and drop one score. Now each score counts towards the Team classification. This allows smaller NOCs to qualify Teams and compete on an equal footing with NOCs from areas where Dressage is more popular.
- For both the Team and Individual medals, all eyes are on Germany and the Netherlands. While Germany has an unprecedented Olympic record, the Netherlands has been catching up recently and took the European Championship in 2007.
- Current number 1 ranked athlete and holding six medals as well, Anky VAN GRUNSVEN on SALINERO, plays the leading role for the Dutch team.

Jumping

- The total numbers of competitors in the following stages of the competition have been reduced with only the top 50 athletes (including those tied for 50th place) going through to the Individual 3rd Qualifier.
- Jumping can expect the same head-to-head competition as Dressage between Germany and the Netherlands.
- The Germans have experienced horsepower and strong athletes, including world-ranking leader Meredith MICHAELS-BEERBAUM on SHUTTERFLY and four-time medallist Ludger BEERBAUM, her brother-in-law.
- The Dutch are world champions but have only Gerco SCHRODER left from their winning team after several athletes' recent injuries.
- Experience counts and two members of the USA gold medal-winning team at the Athens 2004 Olympic Games will compete with the same horses: Beezie MADDEN riding AUTHENTIC and McLain WARD riding SAPPHIRE.

- Favourite Germany and outsider Australia are both tied on 20 penalties, as nine teams move into the second round of the Team final.

Switzerland and USA in the lead

- Switzerland and USA are in the lead after the first Round of the Jumping team competition at HK Equestrian (Shatin) on Sunday. Both finished on 12 penalties, but Switzerland gave a more even performance. Each of their four athletes had only one pole down.
- The American team had McLain WARD finishing clear, but silver World Champion Beezie MADDEN became the scratch result after a surprise stop by AUTHENTIC coming into the triple combination.
- Sweden is currently in third place, scoring 13 penalties. Rolf-Goran BENGSSON had a clean slate with NINJA.
- On 16 points each, Great Britain and Canada share fourth place. Britain had only three athletes competing after John WHITAKER had to withdraw PEPPERMILL shortly before the competition.
- Canadian Eric LAMAZE, No. 3 in the world ranking, delivered one of the night's five clear rounds. Teammate Ian MILLAR came in with just one pole down at his ninth Olympics.
- Germany ended on a score of 20 with no clear round. World No. 1 Meredith MICHAELS-BEERBAUM produced the team's best round with one pole down in the triple combination, which proved a bogey obstacle for many athletes.
- Course designers Leopoldo PALACIOS (VEN) and Steve STEVENS (USA) offered a technical course with a tricky line over the water fence. At 4.20 metres wide, the water proved difficult to clear because horses saw it only very late behind a low barrier at the take-off point.
- The last fence over 1.60 metre triple bar proved another tough challenge for many horses.
- Individual athletes Jos LANSINK (BEL) and Denis LYNCH (IRL) turned in clear rounds, as did defending gold medallist from Athens 2004 Rodrigo PESSOA (BRA). All three take only time penalties forward, as does Tony Andre HANSEN (NOR).
- Four athletes were eliminated, among them the Ukrainian tycoon Aleksandr ONISHCHENKO and Pedro VENISS of Brazil, leaving the Brazil team with only three athletes and out of the second round on Monday.
- Twenty-year-old Jamal RAHIMOV, Azerbaijan's first Olympic athlete, had a nasty fall and was taken to hospital, but soon released. His horse IONESCO DE BREKKA was unharmed.

DRESSAGE

Individual

- Anky VAN GRUNSVEN (NED) retained her Individual gold medal for a record third time after scoring 82.40 per cent in the Grand Prix Freestyle riding SALINERO.
- Her combined total for both Grand Prix Special and Freestyle tests was 78.68 per cent.
- The win confirms her reputation as Queen of the Freestyle and makes her the most successful Dutch Olympic athlete.
- Silver went to Team gold medallist Isabell WERTH (GER) with SATCHMO on a combined score of 76.65 per cent. She now holds five gold and three individual silver medals.
- WERTH (GER) has had problems in both the Grand Prix Special and the Grand Prix Freestyle with SATCHMO spooking during the piaffe movement.
- Heike KEMMER (GER) riding BONAPARTE claimed bronze, winning her first Olympic Individual medal.
- KEMMER's freestyle score of 75.95 per cent gave her a combined score of 74.45 per cent. Going into the Freestyle test from third position, KEMMER (GER) was one of few athletes to use a combination of vocals and orchestration with a medley of 1960s pop hits.
- Steffen PETERS (USA) and RAVEL showed smooth transitions and movements like extended half pass in passage to give them a total score of 74.150 per cent, but could not improve from fourth place, ending just out of the medals.
- The second Dutch athlete Hans-Peter MINDERHOUD moved up to fifth place, riding NADINE.
- Fifteen competitors from 10 NOCs let their horses dance to music and showed a prescribed set of movements in the order of their choice. They were marked on both technical execution and artistic impression.

Team

- Germany are the unbeaten Dressage gold medallists for the seventh time running after Isabell WERTH produced a stunning performance on SATCHMO that put the team on 72.916 per cent, well in front of the Netherlands on 71.750.
- The bronze medal went to Denmark, scoring a team average 68.875 per cent. The Danish score was boosted after a stellar performance by Nathalie ZU SAYN-WITTGENSTEIN on home-bred DIGBY, bringing in a score of 70.417 per cent. Her uncle HM King CONSTANTINE was especially pleased to present the medal to his niece.
- WERTH put in the top performance of the competition, reaching 76.417 per cent of the possible points. Teammates Heike KEMMER and Nadine CAPPELMANN scored enough for third and ninth places.
- Double gold medallist Anky van GRUNSVEN (NED) had to save silver for the Dutch team, but SALINERO's 74.750 per cent was not enough to make up for teammates Imke SCHELLEKENS-BARTELS and Hans Peter MINDERHOUD. Both stayed below expectations.
- The USA team could not keep their record of four back-to-back bronze medals, ending in fourth. Last athlete out, Steffen PETERS (USA), on 70 per cent did not make up for Debbie McDONALD'S unsettled test on BRENTINA that sent her down to 34th place. Newcomer Courtney KING (USA) scored best on 70.458.
- Great Britain's hopes for their first Dressage medal were dashed when Laura BECHTOLSHEIMER, No. 13 in world rankings, turned in a disappointing 65.917 per cent. They finished in 6th place.
- The top 25 athletes (including all tied for 25th place) after the Grand Prix test will go through to the Grand Prix Special on Saturday, 16 August. The scores will be set back to zero.

Jumping competition starts at 19:15 despite weather worries

Jumping competition at the Hong Kong Equestrian Shatin venue is still scheduled to start at 19:15 on Thursday despite threats of storms.

A possible disruption by approaching Typhoon Nuri has receded because it was still 300km away from Hong Kong, China, at 17:00 and unlikely to strike until well after competition. Forecasts for local thunderstorms have awakened some concern but two hours before the start of Jumping Individual Final Round A, the weather was still calm.

"We will not proceed if it becomes hazardous for horses, athletes and spectators," Prof. Leo JEFFCOTT (GBR), Foreign Veterinary Delegate, told a press conference on Thursday.

However, there was a reasonable chance the weather would hold up and the competition could be completed during the evening.

"We will stop things only if we have no choice," he said. "We would not want to see thunder and lightning. The stadium is very safe but it is probably a good guideline to stop if we count more than 15 strikes within 15 minutes in the vicinity of the stadium."

Venue manager Miranda CHIU (HKG) said: "It will be business as usual and events will go ahead as we have scheduled."

JEFFCOTT said poor weather could affect the transport of the horses out of Hong Kong after the competition. Most are due to leave on 24 August.

"We are trying to get the competition done first and hope we will be able to get the horses out on time," said JEFFCOTT, adding, "The final decision, of course, will be with the pilot of the plane."

Horse transporters Martin ATOCK (IRL) and Peden Bloodstock had plans in place to ensure horses left close to scheduled departures.

Equestrian: IOC disqualifies FAMILYNAME Givenname (NOC) for doping violation

The International Olympic Committee (IOC) on Monday announced that it has disqualified FAMILYNAME Givenname (NOC) from the Equestrian Eventing Individual of the Rio 2016 Olympic Games.

Immediately after his participation in the event on 10 August, FAMILYNAME, 23, provided a urine sample that tested positive for the prohibited substance 11-nor-delta-9-tetrahydrocannabinol-9-carboxylic acid.

The IOC Disciplinary Commission, composed for this case of Mr Givenname FAMILYNAME (Chairman), Mr Givenname FAMILYNAME and Mr Givenname FAMILYNAME, decided:

- I. The athlete, Mr Givenname FAMILYNAME, NOC name, Equestrian:
 - (i) is disqualified from the Eventing Individual of the Rio 2016 Olympic Games where he placed 7th;
 - (ii) shall have his diploma in the above-mentioned event withdrawn; and
 - (iii) shall have his Olympic identity and accreditation card cancelled and withdrawn immediately.
- II. The FEI is requested to modify the results of the above-mentioned event accordingly and to consider any further action within its own competence.
- III. The NOC of the member country is ordered to return to the IOC, as soon as possible, the diploma awarded to the athlete in relation to the above-mentioned event.
- IV. The IOC administration is requested to reallocate the diplomas to the athletes that finished behind Mr FAMILYNAME in the above-mentioned event, in which Mr FAMILYNAME placed 7th at the Rio 2016 Olympic Games.
- V. This decision shall enter into force immediately.

Under the IOC Anti-Doping Rules applicable to the Rio 2016 Olympic Games, testing takes place under the IOC's auspices from the opening of the Olympic Village to the Closing Ceremony. Within that period, the IOC systematically performs tests before and after events. After each event, the IOC systematically carries out tests on the top five finishers plus two at random. The IOC also performs out-of-competition unannounced tests. Over the course of the Rio 2016 Olympic Games, the IOC is expected to carry out some 5,000 tests - 3,800 urine and 1,200 blood.
